Lobero LIVE presents

LUCINDA WILLIAMS

Tuesday, January 17 at 8 PM at the Lobero Theatre

- GRAMMY® Award-winning country rock singer/songwriter touring in support of new album, The Ghosts of Highway 20

Santa Barbara, CA, January 3, 2017 – Lobero LIVE is thrilled to present Lucinda Williams on Tuesday, January 17 at 8 PM. American rock, folk, blues and country music singer-songwriter Lucinda Williams is one of a kind, maneuvering down a musical path all her own since emerging from Lake Charles, Louisiana, a town with rich traditions of indigenous American music. Several years of playing the hardscrabble clubs of her adopted state of Texas gave her a solid enough footing to record a self-titled album that would become a touchstone for the Americana movement—helping launch a thousand musical ships along the way. Today, after having been named "America's best songwriter" by TIME Magazine in 2002, Williams' distinctive delta-infused country soul sound is as strong as ever. Lucinda Williams' expansive, enveloping new album, The Ghosts of Highway 20, gives listeners a remarkably vivid look at how the highway has been a literal and figurative backdrop throughout her entire life.

We've all heard about the iconic vibe of Route 66, the neon lights on Broadway and the ocean air of the Pacific Coast Highway. But there are untold stories emanating from countless blue highways across the land – like Interstate 20, which cuts a 1500-mile swath from South Carolina to Texas, and cuts deep into the spirit of those who've spent their lives traversing it. Lucinda Williams is one of those people, and The Ghosts of Highway 20 brings those stories to life. The intensely involving 14-song collection may be the most deeply felt, deeply affecting work of Williams' illustrious 35-plus-year career established on a foundation of remarkably personal songs.

"Her music places itself in a vanishing, idealized Southland where country, soul, blues and gospel all share a common spirit and a vocabulary of twang." – The New York Times
