Santa Barbara, CA, May 12, 2017 – Rock ‘n roll fan and music lover Hale Milgrim is back with ANOTHER carefully-crafted series of special evenings featuring rare concert footage and insider stories with some (OK, a lot) of help from his friends. Join Hale for a visual, musical journey over the last 50 years complete with his memorable insights, commentary and illumination. Or not.

Milgrim’s own musical journey started behind the counter at Isla Vista’s Discount Records, and has spiraled upward through a succession of positions at major record labels, leading eventually to a stint as the President/CEO of Capitol Records. Since returning to Santa Barbara with his wife Anne, he has continued to work and support local music (including Sings Like Hell), and hosted a Sunday radio show, “Go to Hale,” which aired for over six years on KTYD.

Shows begin at 6:57 PM sharp, which means doors open at 6:27 PM. Seating is general admission, so be sure to get here beginning at 6:03 PM on the Esplanade for pre-show refreshments, auction and memorabilia for sale, and other fun stuff from Lobero LIVE and KTYD. All proceeds benefit live music at the Lobero Theatre.

Tickets for the Go To Hale Film Series 2 are on sale now at the Lobero Box Office at Lobero.org or by calling 805.963.0761. Single tickets are $17.50 each or save big and purchase the series for $39—That’s almost one free show! The Lobero is offering a $75 special “I’m with the Band” series, which includes seats in the VIP Reserved Section and a donation to the Lobero Theatre to support live music.
