

GO TO HALE: Film Series 2 Neil Finn & Friends “Seven Worlds Collide/The Sun Came Out” Friday, August 11

Santa Barbara, CA, July 18, 2017 – Rock ‘n roll fan and music lover Hale Milgrim is back with ANOTHER carefully-crafted series of special evenings featuring rare concert footage and insider stories with some (OK, a lot) of help from his friends. Join Hale for a visual, musical journey over the last 50 years complete with his memorable insights, commentary and illumination. Or not.

On Friday, August 11, Hale has put together a new evening featuring showcasing the 7 Worlds Collide / The Sun Came Out concert films. Crowded House frontman Neil Finn has recorded many successful solo albums as well as assembled an amazing cast of musicians for the 7 Worlds Collide project, a live recording & concert film culled from a series of five shows recorded at the St James theatre in New Zealand in 2001. Watch for RADIOHEAD’S Ed O’Brien and Phil Selway, PEARL JAM’S Eddie Vedder, THE SMITHS’ Johnny Marr, WILCO’s Jeff Tweedy, Glenn Kotche, John Stirratt and Pat Sansone. PLUS, KT Tunstall, Tim Finn, Liam Finn, (and even more Finns) and lots of Hale’s patented Quips & Clips! Please note: Content is subject to change without warning.

Milgrim’s own musical journey started behind the counter at Isla Vista’s Discount Records, and has spiraled upward through a succession of positions at major record labels, leading eventually to a stint as the President/CEO of Capitol Records. Since returning to Santa Barbara with his wife Anne, he has continued to work and support local music (including Sings Like Hell), and hosted a Sunday radio show, “Go to Hale,” which aired for over six years on KTYD.

Shows begin at 6:57 PM sharp, and doors open at 6:27 PM. Seating is general admission, so be sure to get here beginning at 6:03 PM on the Esplanade for pre-show refreshments and memorabilia sale, plus, more fun stuff from Lobero LIVE and KTYD. Proceeds from these sales benefit live music at the Lobero Theatre.
