Lobero LIVE presents Sarah Jarosz

With Special Guest Brother Roy

Wednesday, October 18 at 8 PM at the Lobero Theatre

Santa Barbara, CA, September 22, 2017 – Lobero LIVE is thrilled to welcome Sarah Jarosz and special guest Brother Roy on Wednesday, October 18 at 8 PM. While still in her early 20's, Texas native Sarah Jarosz has earned her credibility in the world where contemporary folk, Americana and roots music intersect. Her reputation is built on three fronts—she is a gifted multi-instrumentalist (mandolin, octave mandolin, guitar, and banjo), an expressive and distinctive vocalist, and an accomplished songwriter.

Sarah Jarosz makes a studied departure from her previous records with her fourth album, Undercurrent, shifting the emphasis from her skills as a multi-instrumentalist to her songwriting and vocal performance. Undercurrent accentuates the growth and maturity that Jarosz has achieved since graduating from New England Conservatory and moving to New York City. The change in approach garnered Jarosz two GRAMMY® Awards in 2017—for Best Folk Album Year and for Best American Roots Performance for “House Of Mercy” as well as 2017 Folk Album of the Year from Folk Alliance International for Undercurrent. On Undercurrent, Jarosz delivers a set of all-original songs, centered around four solo pieces that set the tone of the record.

Jarosz ended 2016 and started 2017 building on her previous successes in the UK, with sold out shows at Union Chapel in London and City Halls in Glasgow, Dublin, Belfast, Cork and Lerwick. She returned from the UK just in time to attend the GRAMMY® Awards, followed by an appearance on the new Chris Thile-hosted A Prairie Home Companion as a part of the house band. For this appearance, Jarosz will appear with musicians Jeff Picker on bass and Anthony da Costa on guitars and vocals.

“For Austinites who've followed her since her early teens, the fact that Wimberley native Sarah Jarosz blossomed into one of the most stirring musicians of her generation comes as absolutely no surprise.”

– The Austin Chronicle

Brother Roy

Brother Roy is New York City's rock and roll missionary who lists Harry Nilsson, The Beatles, The Band, Bob Dylan, Neil Young as some of his biggest influences. These are high standards to live up to, and many have tried and failed. But with a refreshing honesty, dedication, and healthy dose of self-deprecating humor, Brother Roy has managed to find a voice for himself in a genre so beloved that it might as well be a religion. Call it unshakeable belief, lovesick obsession, or just plain survival, Roy has written a collection of defiantly good-timin' songs.
