Jazz at the Lobero presents Brad Mehldau Saturday, October 28 at 8 PM

- Celebrated pianist to perform in solo format, and will play selections from his diverse catalog
- Part of the Jazz at the Lobero Fall Series

Santa Barbara, CA, October 11, 2017 – Jazz at the Lobero welcomes Brad Mehldau back to the Lobero Theatre on Saturday, October 28 at 8 PM as part of the Jazz at the Lobero Fall series. Brad Mehldau will perform solo in an evening highlighting his dexterity as an artist who crosses from jazz into classical and pop music with ease. He is one of the most lyrical and intimate voices of contemporary jazz piano, forging a unique path that embodies the essence of jazz exploration, classical romanticism and pop allure. Closing out this series will be 10 Time GRAMMY® Award Winner Arturo Sandoval on Dec 6, a disciple of Dizzy Gillespie who mixes in elements of his Cuban upbringing into his exciting live shows.

Mehldau's musical personality forms a dichotomy. He is first and foremost an improviser, and greatly cherishes the surprise and wonder that can occur from a spontaneous musical idea that is expressed directly, in real time. But he also has a deep fascination for the formal architecture of music, and it informs everything he plays. In his most inspired playing, the actual structure of his musical thought serves as an expressive device. As he plays, he listens to how ideas unwind, and the order in which they reveal themselves. Each tune has a strongly felt narrative arch, whether it expresses itself in a beginning, an end, or something left intentionally open-ended. The two sides of Mehldau's personality—the improviser and the formalist—play off each other, and the effect is often something like controlled chaos.

Mehldau has performed around the world at a steady pace since the mid-1990s', with his trio and as a solo pianist. His performances convey a wide range of expression. There is often an intellectual rigor to the continuous process of abstraction that may take place on a given tune, and a certain density of information. That could be followed by a stripped down, emotionally direct ballad. Mehldau favors juxtaposing extremes. He has attracted a sizeable following over the years, one that has grown to expect a singular, intense experience in his performance.

"Mehldau is the most influential jazz pianist of the last 20 years." – The New York Times

"Universally admired as one of the most adventurous pianists to arrive on the jazz scene in years." – The Los Angeles Times
