First up is conguero Poncho Sanchez on Oct 12, followed closely by guitar mastermind Pat Metheny on Oct 28, and then closing things out will be gypsy jazz genius Dorado Schmitt on Nov 20. All three of these artists share a penchant for fun and unpredictable concerts and bring their immensely talented bands, which should make for a lively series experience.

Poncho Sanchez and his Latin Jazz Band

Friday, October 12 at 8 PM

For more than three decades as both a leader and a sideman, conguero Poncho Sanchez has stirred up a fiery stew of straight-ahead jazz, gritty soul music, and infectious melodies and rhythms from a variety of Latin American and South American sources.

"North America's (if not the world's) most popular conguero bandleader." – JazzTimes

An Evening with Pat Metheny

with Antonio Sanchez, Linda May Han Oh & Gwilym Simcock

Sunday, October 28 at 7 PM

Recently inducted into the Downbeat Hall of Fame as its youngest member and only the fourth guitarist, 20-time GRAMMY® winning guitarist Pat Metheny will present a range of music from throughout his career.

"Metheny is one of the most industrious creative engines in jazz." – New York Times

Dorado Schmitt & Django Festival All-Stars

Tuesday, November 20 at 8 PM

No one has done more to ignite interest in the legacy of Gypsy jazz guitar pioneer Django Reinhardt than French guitarist and violinist Dorado Schmitt. Reinhardt lamented that he might be neglected by history, but today the ebulliently swinging sound he created with violinist Stéphane Grappelli is more pervasive than ever.

"...the equivalent of a master class in gypsy jazz." – The Washington Post
