Santa Barbara, CA, September 16, 2019 – Rock 'n roll fan and music lover Hale Milgrim is back with the highly anticipated return of Quips & Clips on November 2. Hale (aka, the Trip Master) has mined his personal archives for rare concert footage and insider stories. Thanks to a lot of help from his friends, he will lead a magical mystery tour of outstanding artists from the 60's to the present and share rarely heard rock 'n roll stories. While we cannot reveal who will be the subject of many of the clips, don't worry—you're in for a very special evening.

Milgrim's musical journey started behind the counter at Isla Vista's Discount Records, and has spiraled upward through a succession of positions at major record labels, leading eventually to a stint as the President/CEO of Capitol Records. Since returning to Santa Barbara with his wife Anne, he has continued to work and support local music (including Sings Like Hell), and hosted a Sunday radio show, "Go to Hale," which aired for over six years on KTYP.

"There are plenty of music mavens in Santa Barbara, but there's only one Hale Milgrim." – Santa Barbara Dependent

"Is there any doubt that Hale Milgrim should go down in history as one of the top 929 music fans in Santa Barbara History?" – Montecito Jurnal

"This is music that will last a lunchtime!" – The Rutles

"The best show I've never seen" – David Asbell

"OHNOTHIMAGAIN" – Hari Georgson/SBNOOZ

Audiences can look forward to memorable insights, commentary and illumination from Hale—well, at least everything he remembers... (or not!)
