Lobero LIVE presents Arlo Guthrie: 20/20 Tour featuring Alice's Restaurant with Folk Uke

This event has been rescheduled to Wednesday, September 23 at 8 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, April 10, 2020 – Arlo Guthrie will make a special stop at the Lobero Theatre during his 20/20 Tour on Wednesday, September 23 at 8 PM. If hindsight is 20/20 vision, Arlo Guthrie has a vast perspective looking forward. After decades of perpetually touring, the folksinger is dialing it back a bit. But the road has become a way of life for Arlo: sharing songs and stories, getting to the heart of what really matters, and of course being a comic agitator. With over thirty albums in his discography, Arlo delivers an astounding time capsule from the works of his dad, Woody Guthrie, to the present day.

Arlo Guthrie has been known to generations as a prolific songwriter, social commentator, master storyteller, actor and activist. Growing up Guthrie, Arlo was surrounded by such renowned artists as Pete Seeger, Lee Hays, Ronnie Gilbert, Sonny Terry, Brownie McGhee, and Ramblin' Jack Elliott to name only a few. Not surprisingly, Arlo drew from these influences and in turn became an artist focused on bridging generations of folk.

Tickets for Arlo Guthrie: 20/20 Tour with Folk Uke are on sale now at Lobero.org, or by calling the Lobero Box Office at 805.963.0761. Limited number of VIP tickets are $106 which include a pre-show reception with hosted bar and appetizers. Section A tickets are $65 and Section B are $55. Ticket prices include Facility Fee; other fees may also apply.

About Alice's Restaurant

In 1965, a teenaged Guthrie performed a "friendly gesture" that proved to be fateful. Arlo was arrested for littering, leading him to be deemed "not moral enough to join the army." Guthrie attained international attention at age 19 by recounting the true events on the album Alice's Restaurant in 1967. The Alice's Restaurant Massacree, an 18 minute and 20 second partially sung comic monologue opposing the war and the backward reasoning of authority, has become an anti-establishment anthem and an essential part of Thanksgiving on rock stations receiving worldwide airplay.

Folk Uke

Cathy Guthrie and Amy Nelson followed in their fathers' musical footsteps and formed Folk Uke back in 1998. This ukulele and acoustic guitar duo has been playing folk music ever since and exciting audiences with contemplative and quirky songs like "Sh*t Makes the Flowers Grow" and "Knock Me Up." Together, they craft music about heartache, loneliness, and abuse that delivers insightful and entertaining messages for those who are not "easily offended."
