Santa Barbara, CA, November 09, 2021 – Lobero LIVE presents An Evening with Marc Broussard with Jamie McLean Band, Tuesday, December 7, 2021 at 8 PM. Marc Broussard is a passionate singer-songwriter with a unique gift of channeling the spirits of classic R&B, rock, and soul into contemporary terms. Jamie McLean Band creates a musical gumbo that incorporates New Orleans soul, middle Americana roots, Delta blues, and New York City swagger.

"Few modern voices are as powerful as Marc Broussard's soulful bayou-bred baritone." – The Washington Times

"McLean and company ooze drops of southern roots rock, blues, R&B, funk and soul out of every note... the rock & roll swagger of the Rolling Stones combined with the songwriting prowess of Ryan Adams." – Jambase

Blessed with both a rarefied talent and an innate stylistic and emotional authenticity, Marc Broussard has become one of the most indelible artists of his generation. Son of acclaimed guitarist Ted Broussard, Marc was raised in the vibrant Lafayette, Louisiana music scene, which gave him the opportunity to practice his craft consistently from childhood through early adulthood. Deep flavors of his Louisiana bayou home nourish his heartfelt, impeccably crafted songs. Marc released multiple albums with major labels over the years, but has recently returned to his independent roots, which allows him to release more content and truly tap into his creative spirit.

His work has always been about tying his music to a mission, and making the world a better place is a mantra that he has been bound to since the beginning of his career. "Philanthropy has been a big part of my life for a long time," he says. "I've found that artists like me are uniquely positioned to raise awareness and make a difference in our own communities and beyond. In 2015, I decided to make philanthropy a more permanent part of my life by establishing the SOS Foundation. The goal is to use music, both recorded and live, to raise money for causes I'm passionate about."

Jamie McLean Band is a triple threat. The group's energetic and captivating live show is undeniable. McLean's fiery guitar and top line songwriting chops have crafted profound, honest, and heartfelt songs. From Madison Square Garden to Japan's Fuji Rock, the band has shared the stage with the likes of Gregg Allman, Aaron Neville, Dr. John, Taj Mahal, Tedeschi Trucks Band, Trombone Shorty, Los Lobos, Blues Traveler, Marc Broussard, and many more. The band's latest album, Paradise Found, was produced by Ken Coomer of Wilco at Nashville's studio and features the band's strongest and most mainstream songwriting to date.

Tickets for An Evening with Marc Broussard with Jamie McLean Band are on sale now at Lobero.org and at the Lobero Box Office 805.963.0761. FEBRUARY 2022

Lobero LIVE presents A Very Special Evening with Karla Bonoff, Friday, February 4, 2022 at 8 PM. Karla Bonoff has been described as one of the finest singer-songwriters of her generation, and, in her case, the description is not exaggerated. With a career spanning four decades, Bonoff has enjoyed critical acclaim, commercial success, enduring popularity, and the unwavering respect of her peers. In addition to her own chart success with recordings such as "Personally" and the Footloose single "Somebody's Eyes," Karla has seen many of her ballads become pop classics, and songs such as "Tell Me Why" become hits for such stellar artists as Wynonna Judd, Bonnie Raitt, and Linda Ronstadt. <https://www.lobero.org/events/karla-bonoff-2/>

Jazz at the Lobero presents The Brubeck Brothers Quartet Celebrating Dave Brubeck's Centennial, Saturday, February 5, 2022 at 8 PM. Chris and Dan Brubeck have been making music together practically all their lives. Drummer Dan and bassist, trombonist, and composer Chris cut their first record together in 1966—nearly a half-century ago. They've played a variety of styles in a number of different groups as well as with their father, jazz giant Dave Brubeck. Dan and Chris form the foundation, with guitarist Mike DeMicco and pianist Chuck Lamb, completing this dynamic quartet who perform concert series, and jazz festivals around the world. <https://www.lobero.org/events/jazz-2019-brubeck-brothers/>

Lobero LIVE presents Watchhouse on Thursday, February 17, 2022 at 8 PM. Multi-instrumentalist/songwriter Andrew Marlin and fiddler/vocalist Emily Frantz, formerly known as Mandolin Orange, recently recorded their most audacious album yet and decided it was finally time to change their name — to Watchhouse. The name represents their reinvention as a band at the regenerative edges of subtly experimental folk-rock. Alongside drummer Joe Westerlund, guitarist Josh Oliver, and bassist Clint Mullican, Andrew and Emily indulged novel structures and textures. Their self-titled debut album has gone #1 on Billboard's Bluegrass Albums Chart. <https://www.lobero.org/events/watchhouse/>

Lobero LIVE presents Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Friday, February 18, 2022 at 8 PM. For over 50 years, South Africa's Five-Time GRAMMY® Award winners, Ladysmith Black Mambazo has warmed the hearts of audiences worldwide with their uplifting vocal harmonies, signature dance moves, and charming onstage banter. With a deep respect for both their cultural and personal history, Ladysmith Black Mambazo is ever-evolving with an eye toward their long musical legacy. Since the world discovered their powerful a cappella vocals from Paul Simon's Graceland album, the original members have welcomed a younger generation in their mission, passing along the tradition of storytelling and spreading a message of peace, love, and harmony to millions of people the world over. <https://www.lobero.org/events/ladysmith-black-mambazo/>
