Saturday, February 5, 2022 at 8 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, January 17, 2022 – Jazz at the Lobero presents The Brubeck Brothers Quartet – Celebrating Dave Brubeck's Centennial, Saturday, February 5, 2022 at 8 PM. The year 2020 marked the centennial of jazz giant Dave Brubeck. To celebrate his life and legacy, Dave's sons, Chris and Dan – who have been making music together practically all their lives – curated a multimedia show with their own Brubeck Brothers Quartet. Through stories told by his sons, video interviews with Dave and musicians he influenced, and music performed by the Quartet, this show invites audiences to travel along the timeline of Dave Brubeck's extraordinary life and career.

"There's nothing out there that comes close to their unique blend of inventiveness."

– All About Jazz

"A wondrous combination of swing, melodic majesty, masterful arrangements and a truckload of truly inspirational solos." – Seattle Times

Chris and Dan form the foundation of the group, with guitarist Mike DeMicco and pianist Chuck Lamb completing this dynamic quartet. The group integrates the influences of funk, blues, and world music in their dedication to the melody, rhythm, culture, and spontaneous spirit of jazz. Their last album, TimeLine, received extensive airplay in major jazz markets across America, and was a hit on the JazzWeek radio charts for five months, where it made the Top Ten list as one of the most played jazz recordings of the year.

These versatile musicians perform at concert series, colleges, and jazz festivals across North America and Europe, including the Newport, Detroit, Montreal, Playboy/Hollywood Bowl, and Monterey Jazz Festivals. They also collaborate with orchestras all across the U.S. as well as internationally, including performing with the Singapore Chinese Orchestra and the Russian National Orchestra. With Chris Brubeck's compositions as a vehicle, the quartet has joined with chamber groups to collaborate with musicians from the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Russian National Symphony Orchestra.
