Lobero LIVE presents

A Very Special Evening with Karla Bonoff

Friday, February 4, 2022 at 8 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, January 13, 2022 - Lobero LIVE presents A Very Special Evening with Karla Bonoff, on Friday, February 4, 2022 at 8 PM. Bonoff has been described as one of the finest singer-songwriters of her generation. She has enjoyed critical acclaim, commercial success, enduring popularity, and the unwavering respect of her peers. Her impressive career, which has spanned more than four decades, includes opening for James Taylor and Jackson Browne, touring with Bonnie Raitt, as well as writing and recording songs for iconic films. This rare evening will showcase the versatile artist's remarkable music legacy.

"A new Karla Bonoff album is like hearing from an old friend you've missed and think of often. Her songs are comforting, familiar and timeless, and make us feel a part of them just by singing along." - Performing Songwriter Magazine

"Her voice is perfection. She conjures memories...keeping alive the flames of her youth and dedication to other artists." - Huffington Post

Bonoff got her start during the flourishing music scene in Southern California during the '60s and '70s. Monday open mic nights at the infamous Troubadour nightclub in West Hollywood offered the young singer-songwriter the freedom to cover new ground and a unique opportunity to hobnob with other up-and-coming musicians. Over the years, Bonoff has worked with some of the biggest names in music. In addition to her own success with recordings such as "Personally" and the Footloose single "Somebody's Eyes," she has penned chart-topping hits for megastars such as Bonnie Raitt, Wynonna Judd, Trisha Yearwood, and Linda Ronstadt - with many of her ballads becoming pop classics.

In 2019, the artist released her LP Carry Me Home, which included past compositions as well as new ones. That same year marked her collaboration with country music star, Trisha Yearwood. As Bonoff's songs had evolved and changed through the years, she wanted to record a record that clearly documented her contemporary musical sensibilities for both herself and her fans. Performing sold-out concerts worldwide, the singer-songwriter invites audiences to enjoy her greatest hits in an intimate format, where she will deliver many of her popular ballads, such as "All My Life," "Tell Me Why," and "Someone to Lay Down Beside Me," as well as fresh originals from her latest album.
