Lobero LIVE presents
Watchhouse (fka Mandolin Orange)
with Tré Burt
Thursday, February 17, 2022 at 8 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, January 19, 2022 – Lobero LIVE presents Watchhouse with Tré Burt, Thursday, February 17, 2022 at 8 PM. Multi-instrumentalist/songwriter Andrew Marlin and fiddler/vocalist Emily Frantz, formerly known as Mandolin Orange, recently recorded their most audacious album yet and decided it was finally time to change their name — to Watchhouse. The name, like the new record itself, represents their reinvention as a band at the regenerative edges of subtly experimental folk-rock. Opening for Watchhouse is Sacramento-based singer-songwriter, Tré Burt.

Revolutionary kindness, social responsibility, collective understanding: These simple but staggering ideas are the unseen threads of Watchhouse, a miraculous expression of measured domestic protest. Starting more than a decade ago playing coffee shops and local restaurants, Marlin and Frantz have “redefined roots music for a new generation” (Washington Post) as they’ve taken their music to millions of Spotify listeners, historic venues, NPR’s Tiny Desk, and more.

Their self-titled debut album, which would have been Mandolin Orange’s sixth album, has gone #1 on Billboard’s Bluegrass Albums Chart. It’s a tribute to the unique alchemy of the new album, which sees the band embarking on a bold and poetic artistic transformation. Alongside drummer Joe Westerlund, guitarist Josh Oliver, and bassist Clint Mullican, Andrew and Emily indulged novel structures and textures. Watchhouse, co-produced by Josh Kaufman (The National, Bonny Light Horseman), has already received praise from Rolling Stone, MOJO, NPR Music, American Songwriter, No Depression, and GLIDE, among others.

Singer-songwriter Tré Burt honed his debut album, Caught It From The Rye, busking on the streets of San Francisco and traveling the world in search of inspiration. The album showcased Burt’s literary songwriting and lo-fi, rootsy aesthetic. His sophomore album released this past summer, You, Yeah, You, is a narrated collection of songs featuring a cast of invented characters; heroes, villains, those destitute of salvation and those seeking it. Like his late label mate and songwriting hero John Prine (Oh Boy Records), Burt showcases his poet’s eye for detail, surgeon’s sense of narrative precision and his songwriters’ ability to transpose observation into affecting verse.

Tickets for Watchhouse with Tré Burt are on sale now at Lobero.org and at the Lobero Box Office 805.963.0761. VIP tickets are $106 (includes premier seating), Section A tickets are $59, and Section B tickets are $49. Ticket prices include a per ticket Lobero Facility Fee; other fees may also apply.
