Santa Barbara, CA, March 7, 2022 – Lobero LIVE presents Sarah Jarosz with Ric Robertson, Wednesday, March 30, 2022 at 7:30 PM. With her captivating voice and richly detailed songwriting, Jarosz has emerged as one of the most compelling musicians of her generation. The New York City-based artist has several critically lauded albums and has also joined forces with Sara Watkins and Aoife O'Donovan to form the acclaimed GRAMMY® winning folk trio, I'm With Her. New Orleans-based songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, Ric Robertson, opens the show.

"Widely regarded as one of acoustic music's most promising young talents." – The New York Times

A four-time GRAMMY® Award-winner at the age of 30, the Texas native started singing as a young girl and became an accomplished multi-instrumentalist by her early teens. After releasing her full-length debut Song Up in Her Head at 18-years-old, she went on to deliver such critically lauded albums as Follow Me Down, Build Me Up From Bones, and 2016's Undercurrent. In the making of her new album World On the Ground, the New York City-based artist collaborated with producer/songwriter John Leventhal: a five-time GRAMMY® Award-winner known for his work with Elvis Costello, Shawn Colvin, and his wife Rosanne Cash. Working almost entirely on their own, the two musicians crafted a subtle tapestry of sound perfectly suited to Jarosz's lyrical storytelling.

Ric Robertson is an American original, pulling influences from the greats that came before, but wholly responsible for creating his own creative universe. As a songwriter, the artist takes his inspiration from the fragility of our inner lives, but also from the small moments packed with meaning that surround us. A musician's musician, he's continuously in-demand as a touring bandmate, playing with everyone from Rhiannon Giddens to The Wood Brothers. For years, Robertson has made New Orleans his home – but for all his love of Louisiana, North Carolina is where the artist was born, raised, and discovered his passion for music and art.
