Santa Barbara, CA, May 2, 2022 – Lobero LIVE presents Amos Lee 2022 Summer Tour, with special guest, Neal Francis, on Wednesday, June 1, 2022 at 7:30 PM. Philadelphia-born singer-songwriter Amos Lee emerged in the mid-2000s, balancing his love of classic singer-songwriter folk with blues, country, and '70s-style R&B. While Dylanesque folk remains his creative touchstone, Lee has branched out over time, delving into orchestral pop and exploring both vintage and contemporary R&B textures. He has garnered critical praise and chart success with albums like his eponymous 2001 Blue Note debut and 2011's Mission Bell, the latter of which debuted at number one on the Billboard 200.

On his eighth album, Dreamland, released in February 2022, the artist intimately documents his real-world struggles, an outpouring born from deliberate and often painful self-examination. With his laid-back vocal delivery and earthy acoustic sound, Lee has toured as an opening act for numerous notable artists, including Norah Jones, Bob Dylan, Elvis Costello, Paul Simon, Merle Haggard, Van Morrison, John Prine, Dave Matthews Band, Adele, Jack Johnson, and David Gray, among others. He has also performed as a featured artist on the PBS series Bluegrass Underground, as well as on several late-night TV shows. In addition, his music has appeared on the soundtracks of various TV shows and movies.

Prior to launching his solo career, Chicago singer-songwriter-pianist Neal Francis cut his teeth at a young age first as a blues sideman, then as a member of a promising funk ensemble, The Heard. He later developed a retro-driven style, blending classic R&B with New Orleans rhythms, blues, and a healthy dose of early-'70s rock, launching a solo career with his 2019 debut album, Changes. The album landed on best-of-the-year lists from the likes of KCRW, KEXP, and The Current. Along with earning lavish acclaim, Changes led to such triumphs as performing live on KCRW's Morning Becomes Eclectic, sharing the stage with members of The Meters at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, and touring with such acts as Lee Fields & The Expressions and Black Pumas. Two years later, he released his sophomore effort, In Plain Sight, mixed by GRAMMY® Award-winner Dave Fridmann.
