Santa Barbara, CA, December 20, 2022 – Lobero LIVE presents An Evening with Los Lobos – 2 Different Shows: “Amplified Los Lobos” on Friday, January 20, 2023 at 7:30 PM and “Acoustic Los Lobos” on Saturday, January 21, 2023 at 7:30 PM.

Over the last five decades, Los Lobos has made an indelible mark on music history by exploring an enormous diversity of genres and building a boldly unpredictable sound all their own. The GRAMMY® Award-winning group, comprised of David Hidalgo (vocals, guitars), Louie Pérez, Jr. (vocals, guitars), Cesar Rosas (vocals, guitars, bass, Hammond B3 organ), Conrad Lozano (vocals, bass), and Steve Berlin (saxes, midi sax, keyboards), has sold millions of records, won prestigious awards, and made fans around the world.

"The adventurous song selections make the album a celebration of diversity, and a showcase for Los Lobos' marvelous versatility... It's true roots music." — The Associated Press

"It's essential listening from one of America's greatest bands." — AllMusic

But perhaps the band's most lasting impact will be how well its music embodies the idea of America as a cultural melting pot. In it, styles like son jarocho, norteño, Tejano, folk, country, doo-wop, soul, R&B, rock 'n' roll and punk all come together to create a new sound that's greater than the sum of its parts. Their newly released album, Native Sons, reveals Los Lobos' ability to merge genres and styles with both sophistication and playful spontaneity, an element that's perfectly reflected in the album's unbridled joy. The 13-song set was produced by Los Lobos in East Los Angeles and finds the band mapping their musical DNA as a kaleidoscopic selection of tribute songs from their homeland, ultimately creating a crucial snapshot of L.A.'s musical heritage.

For all the trailblazing musical acts who've emerged from Los Angeles, very few embody the city's wildly eclectic spirit more wholeheartedly than the East L.A.-bred band. These brothers have always held a deep appreciation for diverse music, and they love pulling out old gems and making them shine like new. Beyond that undeniably feel-good quality, Native Sons essentially serves as a love letter to Los Angeles and the endless possibilities to be found when all boundaries are shattered.
