Santa Barbara, CA, January 19, 2022 – Dreamland Bros. LLC presents Vlad De Briansky – Dreamland Blues Tour on Wednesday, February 1, 2023 at 7:30 PM. The Ukrainian-born guitarist became a national sensation with his US debut album, Vladosphere, in 2004. His radio hits “Little Star” and “Life of My Heart” made him the only instrumental artist in the top 100 radio charts, climbing above heavyweights such as John Mayer and Phil Collins. Vlad’s second release, Sun in Capricorn, featured on public and classical radio stations, was nominated for a GRAMMY® Award. His latest blues studio album, Dreamland, reached top of the charts around the world, and 2022 was filled with Vlad’s sold-out European tour. In 2023, the artist will be bringing the Dreamland Blues Tour to the states, starting on February 1 at the Lobero Theatre.

“Vlad has the creativity of a Wes Montgomery and the dexterity of an Eric Clapton.”

– Zack Vaz, Motown Records

“When I recorded the Dreamland album, during the pandemic in 2020, I had limited tools: every studio was shut down, the tour was canceled, and I had found myself locked at home in Ukraine, the country I was born and raised in. And I loved every minute of it,” Vlad explains. “Little did I know that just in 2 years, the magical Dreamland Ukraine would be brutally attacked and we would flee for our lives.” An outspoken critic of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, the artist was banned in Russia after Dreamland became the #1 Blues album on the Russian music charts. His current tour is dedicated to the people of Ukraine, and he will be donating 50% of proceeds from ticket sales to help Ukrainian refugees.

And now, Vlad surprises his fans with a new single, “Texas Heat,” to be sold on digital music stores on January 31. Today, the single can be previewed here: <https://www.youtube.com/shorts/vfN4eWIRNI>. “After the most horrible year, fleeing Ukraine with the family and settling in Texas, I’ve decided to start 2023 with a new record,” says Vlad. “Either going to Galveston, or San Antonio, or a bayou nearby – all that made my guitar sing differently. And I thoroughly enjoy it! The US is my adopted motherland, where I cherish every moment I experience here.”
