THE CONNER COFFIN STORY

Mind Surfing is 805's new documentary about Conner Coffin. Not unlike Tom Curren and Bobby Martinez before him, Conner's a Rincon fixture whose professional career is a product of his undeniable talent, rather than some internalized desire to wear a jersey. Directed by Keith Malloy, Mind Surfing spotlights who Conner really is, beyond just a surfer with opportunities, success, and a breathtaking style that rests on a shelf labeled, "iconic."
