

3:00-4:00pm – REBIRTH THE KILL

World Premiere - Director: Josh Pomer - Running Time: 40 min

Surf movies have been around for decades, but few have reached the heights of the classic surf action series The Kill. Now, witness the "Rebirth" of this timeless classic with an all-new movie featuring insane action and radical stunts that will take your breath away.

Featuring some of the most insane surfing moves ever seen, this movie will have you mesmerized with its exclusive footage of crazy airs, long tubes and hard carves. It's a visual feast that will make you want to grab a board and hit the waves. Get ready for an adrenaline-filled ride! California had a winter to remember this year, with perfect waves and ideal conditions for surfing. This made it the perfect time for acclaimed surf film director Josh Pomer to film amazing sessions. And the result was some of the biggest tubes ever ridden in California, captured on camera and shared with the world.

MAYBE ONE DAY - Director: Angelina Owino - Running Time: 8:16 (short film)

Klitmøller the sea is the local community center. It is where all the social life is. Angelina is struggling to become a part of that community. The unconventional surfing film is made by photojournalist Angelina Owino and shows her struggle in the waves.
