Santa Barbara, CA, August 26, 2025 – Lobero LIVE presents Dawes (Duo) Tour, with special guest Sam Weber, on Thursday, September 25 at 7:30 PM. Dawes has cemented itself as one of the most earnest, no-nonsense musical acts out there. They're a band that can move seamlessly between folk rock, piano ballads, and sprawling jams while maintaining both an immediately recognizable sound and a freedom from expectations. In October 2024, for the first time in almost a decade, Taylor and Griffin Goldsmith graced the cover of a Dawes record, entitled Oh Brother.

Even as the brothers navigate new chapters in their personal and professional lives, Oh Brother shows how they remain creative, ambitious, and inspired — what it means to be lifers in a band together. It was just the two of them this time, and as such, the album marked a distinctive new chapter for the California rock band — one that was both introspective and accessible, all while maintaining their beloved sense of sincerity. Oh Brother steered Dawes decidedly forward, honoring 15 years of Taylor and Griffin's musical relationship, as well as the next era of their band.

Regarding their current Dawes (Duo) Tour, Taylor explains "This tour will be just Griffin and I. Drums and guitar. Finding new ways to present material from our entire catalogue, distilled down to only the most essential ingredients. We've done this a lot recently and found that the material and the focus of the shows take on a whole new dimension. These will be some fun nights."

Canadian singer-songwriter, guitarist, music producer, and recording engineer Sam Weber opens the show. Weber's own recorded works and collaborations with Bahamas, Madison Cunningham, and producers Robbie Lackritz and Tyler Chester have yielded millions of streams.
