"The Graduates: The Sound of Simon & Garfunkel is a nostalgia-packed, feel-good night in the theatre, not to be missed." – Good Morning Chicago

Santa Barbara, CA, September 18, 2025 – The timeless music of one of America's most beloved duos will come alive at the Lobero Theatre on Saturday, October 11, 2025, when THE GRADUATES: The Sound of Simon & Garfunkel take the stage at 7:30 PM. More than just a tribute concert, THE GRADUATES celebrate the artistry of Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel, faithfully recreating their iconic vocal blend while bringing new energy to classics that defined a generation. From the haunting harmonies of "The Sound of Silence" and "Scarborough Fair" to the anthemic "Bridge Over Troubled Water," "The Boxer" and the lively "Mrs. Robinson," the show delivers an unforgettable journey through the duo's legendary songbook.

With stunning vocal performances, rich acoustic arrangements, and heartfelt storytelling, THE GRADUATES capture both the spirit and the soul of Simon & Garfunkel's music — music that continues to resonate across generations. "Simon & Garfunkel created a soundtrack to some of the most important cultural moments in our history," says Producing Director Gary Grantham. "Our goal with THE GRADUATES is to honor that legacy while giving audiences the chance to relive the magic of these songs in a live setting. Moreover, we want to give our audience a great night of good feelings, emotional connection and nostalgia."

Whether you grew up with Simon & Garfunkel's music or are discovering it for the first time, THE GRADUATES promises an evening of nostalgia, artistry, and unforgettable performances.
