"The Wailin' Jennys are more than just impeccable bluegrass harmonizers; they're also terrific bandleaders who give their traditional roots music a sense of real reverence." – NPR

Santa Barbara, CA, January 20, 2026 – Lobero LIVE presents The Wailin' Jennys on Thursday, February 12, 2026 at 7:30 PM. Nicky Mehta, Ruth Moody and Heather Masse — three distinct voices that together make an achingly perfect vocal sound. The group has grown over the years into one of today's most beloved international folk acts. Together, they continue to create some of the most exciting music on the folk-roots scene, stepping up their musical game with each critically lauded recording, and thrilling audiences with their renowned live performances.

The Wailin' Jennys began as a spontaneous collaboration between solo singer-songwriters at a small guitar shop in Winnipeg, Manitoba. What started as a one-time event quickly evolved into a renowned folk trio composed of founding members Ruth Moody, Nicky Mehta, and later, Taos-based Heather Masse. Their debut album 40 Days (2004) received widespread critical acclaim and earned them a Juno Award, launching them onto the international roots music scene. Appearances on A Prairie Home Companion helped boost their profile, leading to sold-out performances across North America and beyond. With their soaring harmonies and refined musicianship, the trio captivated audiences and critics alike.

Over the years, The Wailin' Jennys have continued to expand their musical boundaries. Their 2006 album Firecracker introduced elements of alt-country, pop, and rock, and spent over a year on the Billboard charts. The live album Live at Mauch Chunk Opera House (2009) showcased their dynamic stage presence, while 2011's Bright Morning Stars, recorded with award-winning producer Mark Howard, combined fresh, innovative sounds with the band's signature harmonies earning them another Juno Award. In 2017, the band celebrated their 15th anniversary with Fifteen, a carefully curated collection of some of their favorite songs, highlighting their heartfelt vocals, otherworldly harmonies, and sophisticated arrangements. The Jennys are currently on tour, while also road-testing new songs for an upcoming studio album.
