Dave Alvin and Jimmie Dale Gilmore – Almost Acoustic Tour with special guest Lenny Kaye

Sunday, July 12, 2026 at 7 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, June 16, 2026 EARL MINNIS PRESENTS and Lobero Theatre Foundation present Dave Alvin and Jimmie Dale Gilmore – Almost Acoustic Tour, with special guest Lenny Kaye, on Sunday, July 12, 2026 at 7 PM. Blending GRAMMY® winner Alvin's California-bred rock and rhythm-and-blues background with GRAMMY® nominee Gilmore's Texas country sensibilities, the pair discovered a deep common ground in traditional American music. Friends for over 30 years, the acclaimed roots music duo strips things down to an intimate format, highlighting their chemistry through song-swapping, storytelling, and a mix of material from their joint work and solo catalogs.

"Effortlessly cool... tender and beautiful" – Magnet Magazine

Their decades-long friendship and shared love of blues and folk culminated in a formal collaboration beginning in 2017. Although Gilmore was twice named Country Artist of the Year by Rolling Stone, and Alvin first came to fame in the hard rocking rhythm and blues band The Blasters, they discovered that their musical roots in old blues and folk music are exactly the same. Since that discovery, the roots music legends have recorded two critically acclaimed albums together, TexiCali and Downey to Lubbock, and continued to tour – rocking the stage together with their band The Guilty Ones.

As musician, writer, and record producer, Lenny Kaye has been intimately involved with the creative impulse that marks the music. He has been a guitarist for poet-rocker Patti Smith since her band's inception more than thirty years ago, and is the co-author of Waylon, the life story of Waylon Jennings. He has worked in the studio with such artists as Suzanne Vega, Jim Carroll, Soul Asylum, Kristen Hersh, and Allen Ginsberg, as well as his own solo muse. His seminal anthology of sixties' garage-rock, Nuggets, has long been regarded as defining a genre.
