Lobero LIVE presents

Judy Collins – Sweet Judy Blue Eyes: Farewell Tour

Opener: Oakland Rain

Sunday, September 27, 2026 at 7 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, August 24, 2026 – Lobero LIVE presents Judy Collins – Sweet Judy Blue Eyes: Farewell Tour on Sunday, September 27, 2026 at 7 PM. Having thrived in the music industry for half a century, Collins bids adieu to the road with an expansive final run that follows a remarkable recent chapter: six new albums released since 2015, the artistic renaissance of Spellbound, (her first album of all self-penned songs, nominated for Best Folk Album at the 2023 GRAMMY® Awards), and her 2025 poetry collection Sometimes It's Heaven: Poems of Love, Loss and Redemption – a vivid extension of the honesty and grace that have defined her enduring legacy.

Enjoy one last chance to experience the icon singer-songwriter's timeless voice and storytelling live. Judy Collins has long inspired audiences with sublime vocals, boldly vulnerable songwriting, personal life triumphs, and a firm commitment to social activism. The award-winning singer-songwriter is esteemed for her imaginative interpretations of traditional and contemporary folk standards and her own poetically poignant original compositions.

In the '60s, Judy evoked both the idealism and steely determination of a generation united against social and environmental injustices. Six decades later, her luminescent presence shines brightly as new generations bask in the glow of her iconic 55-album body of work, and heed inspiration from her spiritual discipline to thrive in the music industry for half a century. Oakland Rain, the indie-folk and Americana music duo from Norway, will be opening the show. Consisting of twin sisters Maren and Charlotte, managed by their third sister, Kathrine, their introspective music blends acoustic elements, atmospheric storytelling, and rich vocal harmonies.
