The Wallflowers – 30th Anniversary Tour for Bringing Down the Horse

Wednesday, October 14, 2026 at 7:30 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, September 21, 2026 – EARL MINNIS PRESENTS and Lobero Theatre Foundation present The Wallflowers – 30th Anniversary Tour for Bringing Down the Horse on Wednesday, October 14, 2026 at 7:30 PM. The Wallflowers will mark the 30th Anniversary of their landmark album Bringing Down the Horse with a nationwide U.S. tour. The band will perform their classic album in its entirety, in sequence. Originally released in 1996, Bringing Down the Horse was a critical and commercial triumph. The album peaked at number four on the Billboard 200 and was certified quadruple platinum, cementing the band's place in '90s rock history.

Influenced by a slew of first-generation American songwriters, including The Band and Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers, The Wallflowers will also pay tribute on the upcoming tour to the 50th anniversary of Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers' by playing Petty's 1982 album Long After Dark in its entirety and in sequence as well.

Jakob Dylan, the band's chief songwriter, remains a vital performer in American rock music. As part of three decades of work, in 2002, he inducted Tom Petty into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame. In 2018, he performed in the critically acclaimed documentary Echo in the Canyon, collaborating with artists ranging from Neil Young and Eric Clapton to Beck, Cat Power, Norah Jones, Regina Spektor.

Dylan also contributed songs to several soundtracks, including The Wallflowers' cover of "Heroes" for the 1998 Godzilla film soundtrack, "Arms of a Ghost" to television series NCIS Los Angeles, and "Nothing But The Whole Wide World" to Friday Night Lights. In 2025, The Wallflowers supported Eric Clapton on his US tour as they have done in the past for him, as well as the supporting performances for the Who and The Rolling Stones.
